Beaumont

Edith M. Hughes is president of Beaumont Hospital – Trenton at Beaumont Health. Beaumont is a not-for-profit organization formed by Beaumont Health System, Botsford Health Care and Oakwood Healthcare to provide patients with the benefit of greater access to the highest quality, compassionate care, no matter where they live in southeast Michigan. The organization has net revenue of $4.1 billion and consists of eight hospitals with 3,337 beds, 168 outpatient sites, nearly 5,000 physicians and 35,000 employees and about 3,500 volunteers. In 2014, the combined organizations had 175,675 inpatient admissions, 16,229 births and 492,148 emergency visits.

In this role, Hughes is responsible for the financial performance and operations of the 193-bed teaching hospital offering general medical surgical services and specialty care in orthopedics, emergency medicine, surgery and cardiac care. Beaumont – Trenton is also verified as a Level II Trauma Center.

Hughes joined Oakwood in 2002, having spent eight years as chief operating officer at Ingham Regional Medical Center in Lansing and in senior leadership roles in Saginaw and Lansing, Michigan, and in West Virginia. She is a board trustee with Health Emergency Medical Services, Inc. and is a board member of the Southern Wayne County Regional Chamber.

Hughes earned her Master of Business Administration, Advanced Management Program at Michigan State University and her Bachelor of Health Sciences degree at Western Michigan University in Kalamazoo, Michigan.
