

Greg Beauchemin, MS-EHS

President and CEO, Beaumont Mobile Medicine

Beaumont

Greg Beauchemin is president and CEO of Beaumont Mobile Medicine, a subsidiary of Beaumont Health, Michigan's largest health care system, based on inpatient admissions and net patient revenue.

In these roles, he is responsible for senior management and oversight of nine post-acute strategic business units in Michigan, Ohio and Illinois. These include Parastar Inc., Management and Consulting; Community Emergency Medical Service Inc.; DMCare Express; Cemtech Automotive and Fleet Service; Medicare Ambulance; Genesis Community Ambulance; Edward Ambulance Service; Life Support Training Institute; and Loyola Medicine Transport.

Beauchemin joined Beaumont in 1982 and has served as president and CEO of Community Emergency Medical Service; Parastar Inc.; Life Support Training Institute and numerous EMS-joint ventures. Prior, he served as operations manager of AmCare Inc. His early career includes experience as a paramedic and physician's assistant.

As a member of the American Ambulance Association, Beauchemin served as co-chairperson of the Ethics Committee and received the organization's Community Service Award. He is also a recipient of the Administrator of the Year award from the National Association of Emergency Medical Technicians.

Beauchemin earned executive management certification from the Aresty Institute of Executive Education at The Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania. He earned master's and bachelor's degrees in emergency health services from University of Maryland, Baltimore County, and Madonna University, respectively.

Beaumont Health is Michigan's largest health care system for inpatient admissions and net patient revenue and is most preferred for health care in the tri-county area, according to National Research Corporation survey data. A not-for-profit organization, it was formed in 2014 to provide patients with the benefit of greater access to extraordinary, compassionate care, no matter where they live in Southeast Michigan. Beaumont Health has total net revenue of $4.4 billion and consists of eight hospitals with 3,429 beds, 174 outpatient sites, nearly 5,000 physicians, 38,000 employees and 3,500 volunteers. In 2017, Beaumont Health had 175,688 inpatient discharges, 17,789 births and 574,591 emergency visits. For more information, visit beaumont.org.
