

Daniel Frattarelli, M.D.

President, Beaumont Medical Group

Beaumont

Daniel Frattarelli, M.D., is president of the Beaumont Medical Group for Beaumont Health, a division of BSHS System. In this role, he sets the strategic direction for Beaumont's more than 900 employed physicians.

Dr. Frattarelli previously served as Beaumont's primary care network physician executive, building on his leadership roles at Beaumont Hospital, Dearborn, including Chief of Pediatrics. During his time as Chair of the American Academy of Pediatrics' Committee on Drugs, he testified before Congress, the Food & Drug Administration and the Institute of Medicine and was instrumental in passing legislation strengthening pediatric drug testing and safety.

He is a recipient of the Clarence S. Livingood Humanitarian Award and has been named Faculty of the Year numerous times for Beaumont's hospitals in Dearborn and Wayne.

Board certified in pediatrics, Dr. Frattarelli earned his medical degree from Michigan State University and his bachelor's degree from the University of Michigan. He completed his residency, serving as chief resident, and fellowship in pediatric clinical pharmacology at Children's Hospital of Michigan. Prior to his career in medicine, he served in the U.S. Navy.

Beaumont Health is a division of BSHS System. Our mission is to improve health, instill humanity and inspire hope. With eight hospitals, more than 150 outpatient locations, nearly 5,000 physicians and 33,000 employees, Beaumont's commitment to patient and family-centered care contributes to the health and well-being of residents throughout the communities we serve and beyond.
