

Jane E. Jordan, J.D.

Senior Vice President & General Counsel

Beaumont

Jane Jordan is senior vice president and general counsel for Beaumont Health, Michigan's largest health care system, based on inpatient admissions and net patient revenue.

In this role, Jordan oversees a team of attorneys and other professionals focused on strategic alliances, mergers and acquisitions, regulatory affairs, intellectual property, medical malpractice, risk management, credentialing and medical staff affairs, contracts, research/academic matters and labor and employment issues. She came to Beaumont in 2016 from Emory University and Emory Healthcare, where she served as deputy general counsel and chief counsel for health affairs since 2001. She has more than 30 years of health care legal, management and leadership experience that includes transactional, regulatory, advisory and litigation expertise in both private practice and in an in-house legal department.

Before joining Emory, Jordan spent 18 years in private practice as a partner with several well-known firms in the Atlanta area and began her legal career as a law clerk for a federal district court judge in Atlanta.

Jordan earned her bachelor's degree, magna cum laude, from Furman University in Greenville, South Carolina, and was a member of Phi Beta Kappa. She earned her law degree from the University of South Carolina. She is licensed to practice law in Georgia and South Carolina. She is a member of the Georgia and South Carolina Bar Association, the American Health Lawyers Association and the Antitrust and Health Divisions of the American Bar Association.

Beaumont Health is a not-for-profit organization formed in 2014 by Beaumont Health System, Botsford Hospital and Oakwood Healthcare to provide patients and families with compassionate, extraordinary care, no matter where they live in Southeast Michigan. It consists of eight hospitals with 3,429 beds, 187 outpatient sites, nearly 5,000 physicians, more than 38,000 employees and 3,500 volunteers. In 2017, the organization had $4.4 billion in net revenue with nearly 175,700 inpatient discharges, 574,600 emergency visits and 17,800 births. Learn more at Beaumont.org.
