

Deborah Kleinhomer, MSN, RN

Senior Vice President, Home Health Services

Beaumont

Deborah Kleinhomer is senior vice president of home health services at Beaumont Health, Michigan's largest health care system, based on inpatient admissions and net patient revenue.

In this role, Kleinhomer's responsibilities include directing and integrating Beaumont Health's home services, which include home care, home medical equipment, home infusion, hospice and private duty services. Previously, she served as vice president, Home Health Services for Beaumont Health System. She joined Beaumont in 1998 and has served as administrative director, Operations at Beaumont Hospital, Grosse Pointe; director, Care Management at Beaumont Hospital, Troy; and director, Home Care.

Kleinhomer is a fellow of the Nightingale Society and a member of Sigma Theta Tau, the national honor society for nursing. In 1990, she received a Nightingale Award for Excellence in Nursing Practice from the Oakland University School of Nursing.

Kleinhomer earned her master's degree in community health nursing from Wayne State University and her bachelor's degree in nursing from Madonna University.

Beaumont Health is a not-for-profit organization formed in 2014 by Beaumont Health System, Botsford Hospital and Oakwood Healthcare to provide patients and families with compassionate, extraordinary care, no matter where they live in Southeast Michigan.
