

John D. Lewis

Chairperson, Board of Directors

Beaumont

John D. Lewis is the chairperson of the Board of Directors at Beaumont Health, Michigan's largest health care system, based on inpatient admissions and net patient revenue.

Lewis served as Managing Director and Investment Committee Chair, Equity Fund of Donnelly Penman & Partners, an investment banking firm providing services to the community banking and manufacturing sector. This followed his 36-year career with Comerica Incorporated, a $55 billion bank holding company headquartered in Dallas, Texas. Lewis retired as vice chair in 2006. During his tenure, he served as a director of Comerica Incorporated and Comerica Bank. He was instrumental in building and expanding Comerica's presence in Michigan, Florida, California and Texas.

In addition to chairing Beaumont Health's board, Lewis is the chair of the boards for Flagstar Bancorp and Flagstar Bank. He has also led and served on the boards of many other professional and community organizations. He served as board chair of University of Detroit Mercy and Oakwood Healthcare; board vice chair for the Detroit Institute of Arts; director and board chair of New Detroit; board chair of the Bank Administration Institute and member of the Financial Services Roundtable; and director and board chair of the Greater Detroit Area Health Council. He is also a board member for the Community Foundation for Southeastern Michigan.

Lewis earned his Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Dayton and his Master of Business Administration degree from the University of Detroit. He also attended the University of Michigan Graduate School of Banking. In 2004, Lewis received a Distinguished Alumni Award from the University of Dayton. He and his wife Arlene live in Grosse Pointe Farms, Michigan. They have three adult children and three grandchildren.
