

Mark Geary, MA, APR

Senior Director, Communications

Beaumont

Mark Geary is senior director of communications for Beaumont Health.

In this role, he leads internal communications, executive communications, physician communications, external communications, media relations, crisis communications and physician liaisons for the health system.

Mark's career at Beaumont began in 2014 when he was hired as a media relations coordinator. He also previously served as Beaumont's media relations manager and as director of external communications and media relations.

In 2020, Mark was selected for the Oakland County Executive's Elite 40 Under 40 and the 2020 Crain's Leadership Academy. In 2016, Mark completed FEMA disaster training at the Center for Domestic Preparedness in Alabama. He is also a graduate of the Leadership Oakland program.

Prior to joining Beaumont, Mark spent a decade working as a TV news reporter in Missouri, Michigan, Iowa and North Carolina. Throughout his career, Mark has received numerous honors including two Emmy Awards and a Society of Professional Journalists National Sigma Delta Chi Award.

He earned both a bachelor's degree and a master's degree in journalism from the University of Missouri-Columbia. In 2020, he earned his Accreditation in Public Relations (APR).

Beaumont Health is a division of BSH System. Our mission is to improve health, instill humanity and inspire hope. With eight hospitals, more than 150 outpatient locations, nearly 5,000 physicians and 33,000 employees, Beaumont's commitment to patient and family-centered care contributes to the health and well-being of residents throughout the communities we serve and beyond.