

Thomas B. Lanni Jr., FACHE

President, Troy

Beaumont

Thomas B. Lanni Jr. is president of the Troy acute care campus for Beaumont Health, an eight-hospital health system with 150+ outpatient sites, nearly 5,000 affiliated physicians, 1,800 advanced practice providers, 9,000 nurses and 2,000 volunteers across three counties in Southeast Michigan. He is responsible for strategy development, daily operations and financial performance of the 530-bed campus, including its ambulatory, diagnostic and surgery centers.

Lanni joined Beaumont in 2007 as business manager for the Radiation Oncology department. He was promoted in 2010 to administrative director and in 2012 to vice president of Oncology, Medicine, Imaging, Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation, and Respiratory Therapy at Beaumont, Royal Oak. From 2018 – 2022, he served as chief operating officer of Beaumont, Dearborn, providing oversight of the day-to-day operations of the 632-bed teaching and research hospital.

Lanni serves on the board of directors for the Leaders Advancing and Helping Communities and is the elected Regent in Michigan and NW Ohio for the American College of the Healthcare Executives. He also serves on the finance committee of Leadership Oakland. Lanni received Beaumont's Rising Star Leader Award in 2012 and was recognized as a 2014 L. Brooks Patterson Elite 40 under 40 awardee.

Lanni earned his Bachelor of Science in Chemistry from the University of Michigan and a Master of Business Administration from Walsh College. He is a fellow in the American College of Healthcare Executives and an adjunct assistant professor at the Oakland University William Beaumont School of Medicine.

Beaumont Health is a division of BSHS System. Our mission is to improve health, instill humanity and inspire hope. With eight hospitals, more than 150 outpatient locations, nearly 5,000 physicians and 33,000 employees, Beaumont's commitment to patient and family-centered care contributes to the health and well-being of residents throughout the communities we serve and beyond.
