

David Walters, D.O., M.H.S.A.

Senior Vice President, Beaumont Health Physician Partners

Beaumont

David Walters, D.O., M.H.S.A. is senior vice president of Beaumont Health Physician Partners, a division of Beaumont Health, Michigan's largest health care system, based on inpatient admissions and net patient revenue.

In this role, Dr. Walters is responsible for engaging independent and employed Beaumont Health physicians as leaders and partners in value-based medicine. He focuses on physician alignment to ensure a broad system-wide strategy is in place for the transition from volume-based to value-based patient care.

Prior to joining Beaumont Health, Dr. Walters served as vice president and chief medical officer of Botsford Hospital, one of the founding organizations of Beaumont Health. He joined the Botsford medical staff in 1991.

Dr. Walters is certified by the American Osteopathic Board of Emergency Medicine and is a fellow of the American College of Osteopathic Emergency Physicians and the American College of Emergency Physicians. He continues to care for patients on a part-time basis at the Beaumont West Bloomfield Urgent Care Center.

He has been appointed by Governor Rick Snyder to the Michigan Board of Osteopathic Medicine and Surgery and presently serves as chair.

Throughout his career, Dr. Walters has had a special interest in teaching medical students and residents. Over the last several years, he has led medical missions to Guatemala for residents and students.

Beaumont Health is a not-for-profit organization formed in 2014 by Beaumont Health System, Botsford Hospital and Oakwood Healthcare to provide patients and families with compassionate, extraordinary care, no matter where they live in Southeast Michigan.
