

Carolyn Wilson, MBA, RN

Executive Vice President & Chief Operating Officer

Beaumont

Carolyn Wilson is executive vice president and chief operating officer at Beaumont Health, Michigan’s largest health care system, based on inpatient admissions and net patient revenue. In this role, Wilson oversees operations for Beaumont Health and its eight hospitals.

Wilson came to Beaumont in 2016 from Fairview Health Services in Minneapolis, where she served as executive vice president and chief operating officer. Before joining Fairview, she held a series of increasingly responsible positions at the University of Chicago and University of Chicago Medical Center from 1998-2011, including UCMC chief operating officer and associate dean; vice president for faculty practice administration; chief operating officer for the University of Chicago Practice Plan; and director of managed care operations. Earlier in her career, she was an executive at Ingalls Memorial Hospital in Harvey, Illinois, and spent eight years in a series of director positions with responsibility for operations, infection control, quality management and nursing education. Wilson began her health care career as a staff nurse for general medical and infectious disease patients at Blodgett Memorial Medical Center in Grand Rapids, and then at the National Institutes of Health in Bethesda with a focus on infectious disease.

Wilson has served on the Metro Governing Council of the American Hospital Association and on the Vizient AMC Affinity Board of Managers. She has been frequently recognized as a “hospital and health system leader to know” and as a “woman health care leader to know” by Becker’s Hospital Review.

Wilson earned her Master of Business Administration from Benedictine University, a bachelor of science in Nursing at Rush University and a nursing diploma from Blodgett Hospital in Grand Rapids.

Beaumont Health is a not-for-profit organization formed in 2014 by Beaumont Health System, Botsford Hospital and Oakwood Healthcare to provide patients and families with compassionate, extraordinary care, no matter where they live in Southeast Michigan. It consists of eight hospitals with 3,429 beds, 174 outpatient sites, nearly 5,000 physicians, 38,000 employees and 3,500 volunteers. In 2016, the organization had $4.4 billion in net revenue with nearly 178,000 inpatient discharges, 568,000 emergency visits and more than 17,500 births. Learn more at Beaumont.org.