Beaumont, Royal Oak

Beaumont

Debra Guido-Allen, RN currently serves as interim president, Beaumont, Royal Oak, overseeing strategy development, daily operations and financial performance of the 1,100-bed acute care campus, one of the nation's premier academic and community based medical centers.

She has been chief operating officer at Royal Oak for the past three years where she has been responsible for the administrative oversight and strategic direction of operations including surgical services, imaging, emergency services, patient and family care activities, and quality management and patient safety for the hospital and its ambulatory, diagnostic and surgery centers. Before her appointment as chief operating officer, she served as chief nursing officer at Beaumont, Troy.

A registered nurse since 1986, Guido-Allen has held various staff, leadership and administrative positions at Beaumont, Royal Oak, and Beaumont, Troy. Throughout her more than 30-year Beaumont career, Debbie has ensured her teams deliver high quality, patient and family-centered care in partnership with physicians, administrators, employees and volunteers.

She has a Bachelor of Science degree in Nursing from Oakland University and an MBA in Health Care Administration from American InterContinental University. She is a member of the American Organization of Nurse Executives, the Michigan Organization of Nurse Leaders, where she is a past president, and the American College of Healthcare Executives. A fellow of the American College of Healthcare Executives, Guido-Allen serves on the Oakland University School of Nursing Board of Visitors and is a commissioner on the State of Michigan Certificate of Need Commission.

Beaumont Health is a division of BSHS System. Our mission is to improve health, instill humanity and inspire hope. With eight hospitals, more than 150 outpatient locations, nearly 5,000 physicians and 33,000 employees, Beaumont's commitment to patient and family-centered care contributes to the health and well-being of residents throughout the communities we serve and beyond.
