Join us for the Sharing & Caring symposium, a day of laughter, education and camaraderie for those affected by breast cancer.
Saturday, May 9, 2020
8:30 a.m. - 3:30 p.m.
MSU Management Education Center
811 W. Square Lake Road
Troy, Michigan 48098

Keynote Speaker

A Journey of Hope & Humor
Diana Jordan, Comedian and Breast Cancer Survivor
A 10 year breast cancer survivor and 20 year veteran standup comedian, Diana brings life into the room with a sense of hope, perseverance and laughter, proving that no matter what life throws at you, you can roll with the punch lines.

Thriving After Breast Cancer
Corinne Costellic, D.O. FACOS, Breast Surgeon

Better Therapy, Better Survival
Mohammad Muhsin Chisti, M.D., Hematologist/Oncologist
Better outcomes, better survival and better quality of life with Novel immune and targeted therapies in metastatic breast cancer

Drs. Costellic and Chisti will be hosting a Question & Answer panel after their presentations. Please come ready with your questions!

Nutrition - A Key Piece of Survivorship
Deb Martz, RD, Oncology Dietitian
Deb will teach us how to maximize our survivorship skills through healthy eating, to reduce the risk for breast cancer recurrence.

Managing Side Effects of Cancer Therapies: an Integrative Approach
Dr. Michael Walker, ND, FABNO, Oncology Naturopathic Physician
Breast cancer treatment continues to improve, but often causes side effects that may persist during or even after treatment. Integrative approaches can be individualized to safely reduce these side effects.
Giving Opportunities

Founded through the generosity of JoAnne and Donald Petersen, and the foresight of Dr. John A. Ingold, Sharing & Caring has touched the lives of thousands of women, guiding them with information, support and understanding.

Sharing & Caring relies on donations and fundraising to underwrite the Symposium and other programs throughout the year. We hope you will consider sponsorship at one of these levels and help us to continue to offer women the support, education and hope that Sharing & Caring is so privileged to provide.

Caring Friend
